"On Russian Army"

On May 28, 1992, openly violating domestic affairs of Republic of Latvia, Russian Army's armed formations blocked local authorities' and governmental buildings of Dobeles town and its region.

Such unsanctioned stationing of foreign troops in the territory of Dobeles caused serious threat to safety of local population. Moreover, it may lead to tension in interrelations between Russia and Latvia. To prevent from further confrontation, Ist Congress of the ULSGS appeals to Supreme Council and Council of Ministers of Republic of Latvia:

1. To urge international negotiations with Russian government about immediate and complete withdrawal of Russian Army from Latvia.
- I. To cancel all previous decisions about land assignment for use to Russian Army.
3. Till the beginning of negotiations about Russian Army's withdrawal from the territory of Republic of Latvia, there should be made an agreement, that displacement of Russian Army's troops and transport has to be coordinated with local authorities.
