

EUCAN 2018

After successful launch of EUCAN in 2016th, this year Europe Union Canada cooperation is making next steps towards benefits provided by Canada-European Union Free Trade Agreement (CETA). EUCAN 2018 is the agenda setting event fostering cooperation between various groups of stakeholders - local governments, industry and academia under the framework of sustainable and smart urban development.

The keynote speech by Dennis Cuku, Canada's visionary Entrepreneur will share his experiences in the built environment and make a case for intentional infrastructure. Attendees will be invited to question how businesses, communities and people, in general, prosper in an even greater competitive climate. The world is truly more connected and complex than ever before and those charged with creating the future built environment require a practical code for awareness.
